The city council of Montpelier is mildly getting after the electric railroad, one alderman having the temerity to enquire if the road was paying its share of sprinkling assessments, to be told that it isn't. Another alderman then took courage and suggested that the railroad ought to straighten up its tracks. And a third alderman kept up the light trip-hammer effect by gently hinting that he would like the flat wheel taken from the seminary hill car.

This is one of the oldest cases in probate in the state and has been in the courts for 30 years. The estate of B. W. Bartholomew, of Washington, was originally valued at $150,000. Most of this has been distributed among the heirs. There now remains about $12,000 from which must come the accounts of the administrator for services and other items.

Young Men's Suits!

The young men are generally hard to please. The average clothier is afraid to carry a stock in their sizes, 31 to 36 inch chest. We recognize the difficulty in pleasing these young fellows, and have adopted the policy of carrying a large number of Suits and having them made of cloth so attractive and style so natty that they are bound to sell. Prices from $5.00 to $16.00.
